What do you mean by a Butt-Kicking Woman?

For years Mark Gungor has watched too many women tolerate all kinds of bad behavior—particularly from their boyfriends and husbands. He believes that most people continue to treat these women poorly and behave badly for no other reason than they can. Quite honestly, it's not their fault. The sad fact is that many women are insecure and don't know who they are or what they stand for or believe. BKW will show them how to take a strong, confident stand for what is right in their marriage and family—all the while being very respectful women.

Speakers

Mark Gungor - Mark Gungor is one of the most sought-after speakers on marriage and family in the country. Each year thousands of couples attend his Laugh Your Way to a Better Marriage® seminars. His take on marriage issues is refreshingly free of both churchy and psychological lingo. Mark is pastor of Celebration Church in Green Bay, WI.
Mo Isom - An incredible female athlete, Mo Isom, challenged the norm by trying out to be a kicker for the LSU Football team. Her amazing story of tragedy and triumph, as well as her remarkable faith will inspire you to take on the world!
Carolyn Evans - Carolyn Evans, MSW, is a writer, speaker and creator of The Bead Method, a fun, simple method that teaches couples to become intentional about their intimate life. Her girlfriend-to-girlfriend tone and bottom-line sensibility have made her a favorite guest on television talk shows like The Doctors, The Marie Osmond Show and The TODAY Show among others.
John Branyan - John Branyan is a comedian committed to making people laugh until they feel the pain. His energetic and contagiously enthusiastic brand of humor is the kind of comedy that "won't leave a filthy residue".
Diane Brierley - Diane is a former elementary school teacher who stepped out of the classroom and has been working with Mark Gungor and Laugh Your Way America, LLC for eight years. She has a great passion for strengthening marriages and families and has been involved with Gungor's marriage ministry in a variety of capacities.
